In Scotland

There have been a number of changes in Scotland this quarter: the maximum grant has been reduced to £25,000, reflecting a reduction in funds, and the steering group met for the last time. All decisions on funding will now be made by an internal panel. Viridor Credits would like to thank the steering group for their invaluable time over the years, and for helping to support hundreds of projects in Scotland.

Latest News

This quarter, our new website launched, providing a clearer experience for our applicants and making accessing Viridor Credits funding even easier. We also said goodbye to Phil Lettley (above) after nine years serving communities around the UK.

We have reopened to applications from within 10 miles of the Heathfield landfill site, whilst applications near Broadpath have until 31 January 2020 to be submitted.
